

Dear Dorris

Do you believe in Love at first sight?

- Lizzy H13

Sometimes when we lay eyes on someone

we fall in love with them
a little bit.

They seem attractive,
cool, interesting

and you imagine you would get along, if only you knew them.

This may happen frequently, but lead to nothing

but sometimes it works out

you have such a lovely
intense stare

and down the line you may look back and rewrite the story of your relationship in hindsight

giving those first moments extra emphasis.
